Hello Parents,

Welcome to the new academic year here (2023 - 2024) at Belvedere British School.

I do hope you all had a wonderful break and enjoyed a good summer whether you travelled or stayed here in the UAE.

We are delighted to see so many familiar faces returning to the staff and student body and would also like to extend an especially warm welcome to all new members of our community.

We have had Orientation/ Induction assemblies for all classes this week and were also thrilled to meet the FS parents during their first session here in school.

Parents in Partnership

We truly value the relationship between home and school and highly value nurturing the relationships we have with the families of our amazing students. To that end we have weekly Parents in Partnership events here at BBS - please see below for our first invitation to all parents to join us here in school tomorrow morning at 9 am for our Parent Orientation. We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible there.

All parents are cordially invited to attend our first Parents in Partnership session of the new academic year in which information will be shared about all aspects of the school - policies, procedures, routines etc.
